PRESS RELEASE

GGL launches new dynamic web site

Improved navigation, brighter graphics, better search capability, and more up to date information, graphics, and photos now available

Vancouver, British Columbia, March 13, 2008 — Raymond A. Hrkac, President and CEO of GGL Diamond Corp. (TSXV: GGL) (“GGL”) is pleased to announce that GGL has re-designed and updated its web site (www.ggldiamond.ca) to better serve its shareholders as well as others seeking information about the Company.

He said, “Many of our investors count on the web as a primary source of information about the Company and its projects. With the new site and a site management tool, we will be in a better position to maintain the site ourselves, ensuring the information is as up to date as possible.”

The site not only provides up to date information about GGL’s projects, but it also incorporates many features Internet users appreciate – including the ability for viewers to increase the size of the type in the copy for readability – as well as easier navigation, brighter and simpler graphics, and better search capability.

The stock “ticker” now appears on the top right hand of every page, while the SEARCH tool – at the bottom of every page -- enables visitors to search the site for key words and names. News Releases and Financial reports are easily accessible and organized by year. The PROJECTS section is organized into GGL’s three areas of interest: Nickel, Gold/copper, and Diamonds.

A new SPECIAL section includes an Image Gallery, which gives investors a visual idea of what our exploration activities are all about and how our geologists spend their days. Included in the current Image Gallery are photos from the 2007 exploration season on the Providence Greenstone Belt in the Northwest Territories.

Also in the SPECIAL section, under Media Articles, we will reproduce articles that may be of interest to our shareholders and site visitors. Currently, this section includes an article about GGL that appeared in a recent issue of The Northern Miner.

One click to “Contact Us” will send us an email with your comments and feedback on the site (or any other matter).

“We are currently populating some of the sections, with additional maps and charts, and the Frequently Asked Questions, under the SPECIAL section. We welcome your ideas and questions,” Hrkac said.
